OUR SPEAKERS

Henry Evans (GB)
Marine Biologist and climate change scientist
Researcher at the University of Copenhagen. Science communicator at magnificent ocean.

Chanelle Baker (AUS/S)
Regional Director, Europe and Nordic Region, Griffith University. Specialist in Internationalization Education.

Mai-Thi Nguyen-Kim (GER)

Gela Allmann (GER)
Sport scientist, skimo-mountaineering athlete and model, author of „Sturz in die Tiefe“. Juli 2016: Winner of the „Bayerischer Sportpreis“ for her mental strength.

Phill Handy (USA)
General Manager of the TU Munich-project MakerSpace. Specialist for start ups and the international innovation and entrepreneurial scene.

Stuart Kilner (GB)
Dental Surgeon and BIS Alumnus

Mai-Thi Nguyen-Kim (GER)

Performance
Nikita Dance Crew
The multicultural group consists of deaf and hearing dancers. A passionate and powerful dance group, accompanied by the rhythm of the music, which they can only feel through the beat. Enjoy the acts: „Vogue Clown“ and „Believe I can“.

BISpreneurs jury member
Dr. Begoña González Otero (E)
Academic Dean, EU Business School Munich campus, Spanish attorney specializing in intellectual property and information technology law.
THE PROGRAMM

Thursday, 13th of October 2016
Education Summit BeInSpired

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event Description</th>
<th>Presenter(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2.00  | Opening Speech                                                                     | Dr. Chrissie Sorenson
Director BIS                                                                 |
|       | Speech                                                                            | Katie Long and Leonardo Peruzzi
Alumni, initiators                                                                 |
| 2.15  | TED-style talk                                                                     | From University To The South Pole And Beyond
Henry Evans
Marine biologist, climate change scientist                                                                 |
| 2.45  | TED-style talk                                                                     | Be Different
Chanelle Baker
Regional Director, Europe and Nordic region,
Griffith University                                                                 |
| 3.15  | TED-style talk                                                                     | Just start making
Phill Handy
General Manager MakerSpace TUM                                                                 |
| 3.40 – 4.30 | Coffee Break                                                                      |                                                                             |
| 4.30  | Interview                                                                          | Fight – Smile – Love!
Gela Allmann
Sport scientist, extreme skimountaineer                                                                 |
| 5.00  | TED-style talk                                                                     | From BIS to Full Oral Rehabilitation
Stuart Kilner
Alumnus, dental surgeon                                                                 |
| 5.30  | TED-style talk                                                                     | Believing in Science: A Matter of Attitude
Mai-Thi Nguyen-Kim
Polymer chemist and science communicator                                                                 |
| 6.00 – 7.00 | BISpreneurs Award Ceremony                                                       | Dr. Begoña González Otero
Academic Dean, EU Business School
Phill Handy
General Manager MakerSpace TUM
Dr. Rohan Skene
Economics teacher and Deputy Principal Secondary                                                                 |
| 7.00  | Opening                                                                           |                                                                             |
| 7.00 – 7.45 | Exotic Buffet                                                                     |                                                                             |
| 7.45 – 8.00 | Speech                                                                            | Jean-Claude Brunet
French General Consul Munich                                                                 |
| 8.00 – 8.30 | BIS 25 years: looking back and forward                                            |                                                                             |
| 8.30  | Celebration Party                                                                  | Live music & performances
K-Room – student band
WoodBloodZ – alumni band
Nikita Dance Crew
Band of Brothers – teacher band                                                                 |
|       | BIS 25th Anniversary Celebration                                                   |                                                                             |
|       | Moderation: Dr. Chrissie Sorenson                                                  |                                                                             |
|       | Opening                                                                           |                                                                             |
|       | Exotic Buffet                                                                      |                                                                             |
|       | Speech                                                                             | Jean-Claude Brunet
French General Consul Munich                                                                 |
|       | BIS 25 years: looking back and forward                                            |                                                                             |
|       | Celebration Party                                                                  | Live music & performances
K-Room – student band
WoodBloodZ – alumni band
Nikita Dance Crew
Band of Brothers – teacher band                                                                 |
|       | End                                                                                |                                                                             |